

INFO ABOUT PACKER X

What is Packer X?

We are a team that promotes:

- A sense of community.
- Interdisciplinary learning in the four academic classes.
- Research, problem solving, and critical thinking.
- Innovation and creativity.

We also encourage building relationships and life skills.

- Fieldtrips
- Extracurricular Activities
- Community Service

Who takes part in Packer X?

Students who:

- Are Highly motivated.
- Demonstrate responsibility & maturity.
- Demonstrate advanced knowledge, interest, and ability in academic areas, the arts, and/or technology.
- Exhibit strong communication skills.
- Possess characteristics of creativity: curiosity, originality, resourcefulness, and problem-solving ability.
- Have the resilience to discover their gifts through trial and error.

What are the requirements of students in Packer X?

- To maintain passing grades in all classes
- To complete 10 hours of community service per semester
- To be involved in at least one extracurricular
- To complete a science fair project during the Fall semester
- To maintain exceptional behavior

How are students chosen?

- 4th grade GaMAS scores and Lexile scores
- Elementary School behavior, absences, and grades
- Teacher recommendations
- Group interviews and applications

Our End Goal:

To provide diverse a community of students with the knowledge, skills, work ethic, and perseverance necessary for success in high school, college, and beyond.